

As an Indiana resident I wish the FCC would not implement any proposal that would lessen Indiana's telephone privacy law protection. This law has been a great help, many times a dinner we have been bothered with solications. It took so much time away from valuable family time. This law is important don't change it!